

Hey what's up!! Bernard Here, I would say that I'm more fun than a barrel of monkeys and I'll prove it to ya, bring those monkeys over here!.The roles I have been cast in are mostly comic relief or artistically deep. When I say artistically deep I mean the characters I've played are somehow trying to teach the world something while still seeing the humor in things.I've studied with acting coach Bobbie Chance. Working with her has got me to get cast as the Narrator in Blood Brothers, Levi in Joseph the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, and Angel in Rent.

With my unique career in Singing Telegrams I have performed for Dr Oz Janelle Monae, World News with Diane Sawyer, and MTV To keep myself balanced in this Business I make sure I have a personal yoga and meditation Oom!! I love the mediums of film and theater and I'm so looking forward in creating more magic on them. So until we meet keep dreaming. Peace!
